If you knew a category five hurricane... a perfect storm, was heading right towards you, wouldn't you do everything possible to get out of harms way?

Well... a massive calamity is coming. And when it does, it will rock the world to its core.

This storm will include:

- An Economic Collapse
- Political and Social Unrest
- Environmental Calamity
- And More

Though history has thought us repeatedly and continuously that bad things always eventually happen, as a whole, political policy makers and the general public are in a continuous state of denial evidenced by an apathetic view of planning, mitigation and education efforts.

The anger building against the ruling elite on Wall Street and in Washington DC is real. Average Americans feel betrayed by politicians, bankers and corporate America. The so-called "Tea Party" is a staged movement to pacify that anger.

People certainly haven't reached a consensus about which direction the country needs to move, even though the early stages of the collapse has begun.

To understand what has happened and what the future has in store for us, you must first understand that it is all just a brilliantly designed game: and that game is MONOPOLY!

"IF YOU MAKE YOURSELF A SHEEP...
THE WOLVES WILL EAT YOU."
-- Benjamin Franklin

Just like the board game, it begins with the player who is the bank. The banker creates units of money out of thin air; lends it to the other players, with interest attached; gets them to buy items; then raises rates; forcing the other players to work harder; hover like a vulture until the expected defaults occur; and then rake in the other players forfeited assets.

Best of all, when the banker gambles with the interest payments, the very player who destroyed all of the other players, gets bailed out with tax money. This is how it works in the real world. It's very simple. We are the suckers and they call us thieves when we can't pay them back. The game is rigged for the house and it's always a Win/Win for them and a Lose/Lose for us... the other players.

We live in a board game that goes to unspeakable expense to nurture us from the teat to be good consumers. We are issued a tax collection number at birth (SS#), another artificial number for our credit worthiness (FICO), and then we're extended a certain amount of tokens to play "life" based on those numbers. This virtual currency, not unlike Monopoly Money, only has value because we give it value.

Sure, we get to "rent" a flat-screen TV, a car, or a home from them, making life almost worth it. But, ultimately, we only temporarily use that stuff at great expense to us and massive profits to the banks. After years and years of paid interest, we still never truly own anything. The TV is now obsolete and worthless; we still must pay increasing property taxes and insurance on our homes and cars, even when we are done paying the bank three times their value, they bought our years of servitude with nothing real or tangible.

Here are a few things we can expect in the near future:

- Continued reduction in the national wealth of Americans as home prices drop another 20-80% and the stock market loses up to 80% of its value.
- A National Debt in real terms of $100 trillion, potentially resulting in massive interest expense payments and the collapse of the USD.
- When the Central Bank experiment in fiat currency fails, a hyperinflationary depression is likely.
- The demographic headwinds of a rapidly aging population combined with the gutting of industrial America by corporate chieftains insures that the American economy will be stuck in low gear. The result will be a steady decline in the American standard of living.

- The entire suburban sprawl existence of America, with 260 million automobiles and food trucked from 1,500 miles to grocery stores will disappear practically overnight.
- The wrenching changes, which will be required to localize, combined with the loss of wealth, will likely lead to social chaos, possible revolt, and the use of U.S. military forces against citizens of the United States. Geographic fragmentation of the country is a distinct possibility.
- The ruling elite and bankers in London, New York, Washington DC, Tel Aviv, and Basle will provoke more wars to maintain their control. The Middle East is likely to turn into a battlefield. China and Russia are likely to be involved. With the proliferation of nuclear weapons, an escalation could lead to a catastrophic worldwide conflagration.
- The ruling elite and bankers will continue to pollute with oil and chemical spills, radiation weapons, and the contamination of water and food supplies in their efforts to keep the world population from targeting them for the crimes against all living things, and the planet.

The good news, however...

The ruling elite and bankers will not succeed if people discover their common law rights and opt-out of the current system and refuse to participate in the coming calamity.

For people to survive and prosper, they must learn to sweep away the old order and replace it with their own. Not the one the ruling elite and the bankers have in mind.

Only "YOU" can guarantee that life will be better for yourself. If you do not educate yourself and claim your God given common law rights, it will get far worse when the elites get what they want.

7 Reasons why Credit Card / Loan agreements are unlawful or why you don't owe your bank / credit card company anything

1. Your Credit Card Agreement is an unlawful contract as it is ONLY signed by you- constituting a unilateral agreement. (Contract Law)
2. All contracts, in order to be valid, must be signed by someone able to bind the corporation in contract. (Contract Law)
3. Banks create money out of thin air- they have no money to lend you. (Fractional Reserve Banking)
4. It is not possible to actually pay the outstanding amount as the currency is based on worthless paper and 'electronic funds' on computers. (Fractional Reserve Banking)
5. You do not have to pay statements, only invoices. (Bills of Exchange Act)
6. You are not lawfully bound to pay anything which is unsigned. (Bills of Exchange Act)
7. The uppercase name on the credit card is not your name, but a 'corporate entity'. (Blacks Law Dictionary)
